

Who : Forever Young Theatre (FYT) -Registration Jan 20th 10:00 am

.... for the young at heart.

Artistic directors: Valerie Glover-Drolet and Heather Tremblay

FYT - is open to everyone, 50 plus , there are no auditions and there is a place for everyone.

Where: Heritage Social Club- 503 8th ave Deux Montagnes

When: Every Monday and some Wed.am during productions

Why: Every person has talent that can be developed to a level that is personally rewarding.

- Participate for the joy and enrichment. The company fosters connections across generations, across the community leading to better mutual understanding among citizens.
- Participants in FYT range in age from 50-89 years old..Some are involved in front of the stage others behind the scene in costume, set design, music, sound and lights and makeup
- Forever Young is the first registered English speaking Senior theatre company in Montreal and the Lower Laurentians area.
- Forever Young joined the Sur Les Ailes des Artisans co-operative in 2012, and is part of a cooperative network of arts professionals, artists, musicians, singers, dancers, poets, artisan crafters, and photographers.
- Started as a project program in 2010 with Sur Les Ailes des Artisans cooperative as a sponsor with a New Horizons for Seniors grant. The cooperative receives support from community partnerships of Ville de Deux

Montagnes thru cooperative accreditation, the Holy Family Church, 4 Korner's, Family Resource Centre, the DM Lion's Club, The Community Connections Newspaper, donations and fundraisers.

Winter Session - 2014

- Touring : "Rock the Juke Box" -

Workshops on Vocal singing Technique and Training with Maestro Stephan Forget

Acting Technique with John Abbot Graduates.

Theatre Outings - March -July - Little Shop of Horrors and Cole and Company

Shakespeare in the Park

Radio Theatre and Spring Gala fundraiser -

Contact Heather Tremblay - or 450-472-8927 or Sandra Tremblay -

Sandytsmith@yahoo.ca